CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to all members of the 2007 graduating class of UBC Okanagan!

Graduation is the most important day in any university calendar. Though it is many years since I myself graduated from UBC, I still remember the sense of accomplishment that I felt at the time. Today you should take real satisfaction from what you have achieved over the past several years; today you receive the recognition and reward for everything you have invested in your education—time, money, hard work, and a willingness to make sacrifices for a distant goal. You have grown and matured during your time at UBC Okanagan, acquiring knowledge and skills to take into your chosen career or profession, and the external symbol of that process is the academic qualification that will be bestowed upon you today.

Graduation is also a time of new beginnings. Having completed this stage of your preparation, you will move on to new challenges and new opportunities, and your responses to those opportunities will be greatly influenced by what you have acquired at UBC. Our greatest responsibility as educators is to provide you with the tools you need to be successful in a complex, competitive and challenging world. The education you have received at UBC is the best any university can offer. It forms the solid foundation upon which you will build your future achievements.

As alumni of this exceptional university, you will soon take your place as leaders and innovators in our province, helping to shape and develop our Okanagan communities: you will operate our businesses, manage our resources, provide health care, teach our children, provide political leadership and nourish our culture.

At the same time, you have been prepared to approach issues from a global perspective. UBC has taken its place on the world stage, and our work touches lives and economies far beyond our borders. Whether you choose to stay in the Okanagan or explore further afield, you have learned the values and obligations that come with responsible citizenship, and you have been well prepared to meet the needs of your community, wherever that community may be.

I hope your time at UBC Okanagan has taught you the value of knowledge and the importance of using it well. I hope, too, that at this important moment in your life you are able to recognize the opportunities presented by change, and that you are ready to take advantage of that change. Please accept my warmest congratulations on your accomplishment, and my best wishes for your future success.

Allan McEachern, Chancellor

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The motto that accompanies UBC's coat of arms, "Tuum Est," was chosen by Dr. Frank Wesbrook, our first President, in time for the opening of UBC's first session in 1915. It has been variously translated as meaning "It is yours" or "It's up to you." Either way, it stands as a reminder of the goal that Wesbrook set for UBC: it was to be, in his words, "the people's university"—an institution that would conduct learning and research "to meet all the needs of all the people."

That has been the tradition of this university—your university—ever since. As a UBC student, you have been part of a community dedicated to higher learning and to the application of that learning for the benefit of all. Whatever your field or discipline, you have acquired understanding, skills, and training that will help you to achieve your professional goals and equip you to become an active and responsible member of society. Most importantly, you have developed the habit of critical thinking, of asking the hard questions that need to be asked if we are to solve the many serious problems that face us.

As a graduate of UBC Okanagan, you represent the best hope of this community for a safe, harmonious, and prosperous future. Your graduating class includes people who will become the civic leaders of tomorrow, the doctors and teachers and nurses, the scientists and engineers, whose skills and knowledge will be put to the test by the social, economic, and environmental challenges that threaten our wellbeing whether we live in the interior of British Columbia or in distant regions afflicted by famine, strife, and disease.

I am confident that, as the inheritors of Frank Wesbrook's vision, the members of the UBC Okanagan graduating class of 2007 will use their learning for others' benefit as well as their own, working at home and abroad to create and maintain a civil and sustainable society. They will take up the challenge implied by the motto "Tuum Est" to become active participants in the search for solutions, rather than remain on the sidelines as passive observers of the work done by others.

President Wesbrook could not have foreseen how his new provincial university would grow from a few borrowed and half-completed buildings in Vancouver to the multi-campus institution it is today, recognized as one of the world's leading research-intensive universities. He would have been especially proud to see how rapidly UBC Okanagan has established itself and begun to contribute to the social and economic progress of our province, and indeed of our country.

Whatever path you choose following your graduation, you will always be welcome at UBC Okanagan. This is your university: whether as a continuing student, as a new graduate, or as a lifetime member of Congregation and the Alumni Association, you will remain a member of this community, and share in its goals and values. Please accept my warmest congratulations upon all that you have already accomplished, and my very best wishes for a successful future!

Stephen J. Toope
President and Vice-Chancellor

SYILX WELCOME

Elders, Chiefs, Board of Governors, dignitaries, UBC Okanagan faculty and staff, family, friends, visitors, students and graduates, on behalf of the Okanagan Nation Chiefs and our member communities we welcome you to our beautiful territory and to the UBC Okanagan Spring Congregation 2007. We are pleased to be provided this opportunity to extend our congratulations to all the new graduates of UBC Okanagan. We are honoured to be part of your Congregation. Ceremony and recognition of achievement, and the meaning inherent in special events like this one, have always been an integral part of syilx culture, beliefs and customs. Learning has always been fundamental to the well-being and survival of our communities.

Traditionally, Okanagan people valued life-long learning. Education and academic excellence are also a part of syilx culture. The honoring of one's intellect and knowledge has always been important. The Okanagan traditions and ceremonies awarded achievement no matter how big or small. Announcements were made to the Nation that "this is a day of significance to this person, (family and/or community) and you are all welcome to share in this celebration". The Okanagan shared their land, their teaching, and their culture with others and now as graduates, you too will have this opportunity to share your education with the community. Your educational attainment will serve you well, especially if you use it to serve your communities!

The Okanagan Nation Alliance and the UBC Okanagan have forged a new path of partnership and inclusion so that we can all learn to embrace, strengthen and celebrate our diversity. The pursuit of academic excellence will continue to advance and transform our societies. Okanagan participation in today's congregation ceremony and within this University bodes well for our future and our communities.

UBC BOARD OF GOVERNORS

UBC's 21-member Board of Governors comprises the chancellor, the president, eleven persons appointed by the lieutenant-governor, three faculty members elected by faculty, three full-time students elected by students and two people elected by and from the full-time employees of the university who are not faculty members.

By legislation, the board is responsible for the management, administration and control of the property, revenue, business and affairs of the university including the appointment of senior officials and faculty on the recommendation of the president. The governors represent diverse backgrounds, which provide valuable input during board deliberations.

UBC TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic costume is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, when the first Universities were founded. The regalia vary slightly from one University to another, and within a University, according to the status of the wearer. At the University of British Columbia, the undergraduate's gown is black.

The colours for the degrees being granted in 2007 at UBC Okanagan are as follows:

B.A. – University Blue

B.Ed. – White with University blue cord

B.F.A. – University blue with magenta cord

B.S.N. – Scarlet with University blue and white twisted cord

B.S.W. – Magenta

B.Sc. – Light blue

The hood for the honorary degree LL.D. is of scarlet broadcloth lined in dark blue velvet; for the D.Sc., it is lined in dark purple and for the D.Litt., it is lined in cream.

More information on degrees granted in Vancouver can be found at www.graduation.ubc.ca.

UBC'S DISTINGUISHED HISTORY OF GRADUATION

UBC's first Congregation ceremony took place on May 4, 1916 in the Hotel Vancouver ballroom. There were 41 graduates.

- UBC's first graduate degrees were conferred in 1919. The first degrees in Agriculture were conferred in 1921. The first Bachelor of Applied Science in Nursing and Forestry degrees were awarded at the eighth Congregation in 1923.
- Students at UBC's Vancouver campus now graduate from 12 faculties: Agricultural Sciences, Applied Science, Arts, Commerce and Business Administration, Dentistry, Education, Forestry, Graduate Studies, Law, Medicine, Pharmaceutical Sciences and Science.
- Students at UBC's Okanagan campus will graduate from four faculties at the 2006 Spring Congregation: The Irving K. Barber School of Arts and Sciences, Creative and Critical Studies, Education, and Health and Social Development.
- Each year since 1919, the graduating class in Vancouver has planted a tree to mark Congregation.
- The first Congregation ceremony on the present day Vancouver campus was held in 1927.
- When graduating students are presented to the chancellor he or she says "I admit you," welcoming them to convocation, the body of graduates that elects the chancellor and some university senators.
- Hoods and gowns worn by graduates are lined with colours that indicate the degree to be conferred. Members of the Congregation processions wear colourful academic regalia from around the world signifying their university of graduation and highest degree awarded.
- The gowns, hoods and mortarboards worn by graduating students evolved from clothes worn by European scholars in the Middle Ages.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the Congregation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

The Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President, and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Congregation ceremonies.

The University Mace will be brought up from Vancouver for the Congregation ceremonies at UBC Okanagan. A new Mace will be created specifically for the Okanagan campus.

VANCOUVER CAMPUS

In the fall of 1957, the University commissioned Haida carver Bill Reid to undertake the project. Owing to Reid's heavy workload, he suggested that George Norris be asked to help design and carve the Mace.

Norris completed the Mace in 1959 and it was first used at the Fall Congregation where the Director of Ceremonies, Malcolm McGregor, carried it for the first time.

THE CHANCELLOR'S OKANAGAN CHAIR

In 2007, UBC Okanagan commissioned the creation of a new Chancellor's chair for use in Okanagan Congregation ceremonies. Handcrafted by master furniture maker Dennis Weidman of Lake Country, B.C., the chair was fashioned from cherry wood, a species selected for its significance in the Okanagan's long history as a fruit-growing region.

The chair's front panel features UBC's motto, Tuum Est, the UBC Okanagan logo laser engraved in the headrest panel, and UBC's coat of arms on each side panel.

Weidman invested more than 200 hours in the chair's construction and finishing. Its combination of lasting strength and elegance are the result of painstakingly fitted traditional mortise and tenon joinery hidden within the graceful design.

UBC Okanagan's Spring Congregation 2007 marks the debut of this new Chancellor's chair.

O CANADA

---

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true north strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

OKANAGAN SONG

The Okanagan Song is based on a traditional song style called skəlmxqin. Skəlmxqin songs belong to the Okanagan/Syilx people collectively. Songs of this style can be sung by any Okanagan/Syilx person using their own phrasing and their own emotion while maintaining the formal rhythm and structure. This song has been called the "Okanagan Song" or the "Okanagan Nation Anthem" because the phrasing and meaning were constructed to celebrate pride in being Okanagan.

Translation of suknaqinx skəlmxqinx

Note: the word aʔi translates three separate ways in this song.

Aʔi kʷu swi wi numtax
(given that we are good-looking/vibrant/strong)

Aʔi kʷu suknaqinx
(due to being Okanagan)

Aʔi axaʔ iʔ tmxʷulaʔxʷ
(because of this land)

Literation/meaning

We are beautiful
Because we are Okanagan
Because our land is beautiful

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

- Provincial legislature passes a new "University Act" establishing The University of British Columbia. It provides for a Chancellor, a Convocation, a President, and a Board of Governors to manage the university's administration, property and business affairs, and a Senate to administer academic matters.

1910

- After a province-wide survey, Point Grey is selected as the site of UBC's new campus.

1913

- Dr. Frank Fairchild Wesbrook appointed first President of UBC.

1915

- The University of British Columbia opens in temporary headquarters at the former MUCBC facilities (nicknamed the "Fairview Shacks" after the surrounding neighbourhood) adjacent to Vancouver General Hospital. There are three faculties: Arts and Science, Applied Science and Agriculture. Student enrolment in September is 379 and total number of full- and part-time faculty is 34.

1922

- Tired of over-crowded conditions and inadequate facilities, UBC students launch a campaign known as "Build the University" to resume construction at the Point Grey campus. With 56,000 names on a petition for the government, 1,200 students with floats, bands and banners march through the streets of downtown Vancouver to the Point Grey campus. This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of BC to resume work on the Point Grey site. The "Great Trek" represents one of the greatest efforts of an undergraduate student body in support of its university and still reflects the spirit and pride of UBC students.

1925

- UBC moves to Point Grey campus.

1940

- Students contribute to the construction of Brock Hall, the university's first student union building.

UBC students march through the streets of Vancouver in the "Great Trek" of 1922.

1951

- Student initiative leads to construction of War Memorial Gymnasium, as a memorial to the British Columbians who died serving their country.

1979

- UBC awards its 100,000th degree.

1989

- UBC launches the “World of Opportunity” fundraising campaign to pay for new buildings, facilities, programmes, and scholarships. By the time it ends in 1993, this overwhelmingly successful campaign raises a total of $262 million.

1993

- U.S. President Bill Clinton and Russian President Boris Yeltsin meet at UBC during the “Vancouver Summit.”
- Dr. Michael Smith receives the Nobel Prize.

1997

- Dr. Martha C. Piper becomes UBC's new President.
- The Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders' Meeting brings the heads of the 18 leading economies around the Pacific Rim to Vancouver.

2000

- UBC celebrates 75 years at the Point Grey campus—which has changed considerably over the years—as it confers close to 6,000 degrees to graduating UBC students.

2001

- UBC opens its new downtown campus, UBC at Robson Square.

2004

- The B.C. Government announces the creation of UBC Okanagan, centered in Kelowna.
- 3 Nobel Peace Prize Laureates, – His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Dr. Shirin Ebadi – are given Honorary degrees and participate in an unique roundtable dialogue with Rabbi Schachter-Shalomi and Dr. Jo-ann Archibald.

2005

- The Okanagan Nation Alliance welcomes UBC onto the traditional Okanagan territory during a celebration on the new UBC Okanagan campus.
- UBC Okanagan officially opens in Kelowna and welcomes its first students onto campus.

2006

- The first congregation ceremony is held for UBC Okanagan graduates.
- Professor Stephen J. Toope becomes UBC's new President.
- Dr. Doug Owram is hired as the Deputy Vice-Chancellor of UBC Okanagan

SUSTAINABILITY PLEDGE

Imagine all UBC graduating students making a collective statement of commitment to improving the sustainability of our communities.

UBC students have joined university and college graduates across North America in a growing movement to redefine the purpose of education. Students are committing to use their knowledge wisely to create positive change in the world.

Through the UBC Sustainability Pledge, you have the opportunity to commit to working toward a career and lifestyle with a conscience. The Pledge also links you to resources that will help you incorporate social, ecological, and economic aspects of sustainability into your professional and personal life.

The Pledge is more than just a personal commitment. Our collective voice sends a strong message to the university and the greater community that UBC students care about sustainability.

Take a graduating step to creating a more sustainable society, sign now at: www.sustain.ubc.ca/sustainable\_u. This program was proposed and is managed by students, and is supported by the Office of Student Development and the Campus Sustainability Office.

GOODBYE, STUDENTS. HELLO ALUMNI!

Welcome, Class of 2007, to the Alumni Family. Today we celebrate all you have worked for and achieved in your time at UBC.

Many students don't realize that when you graduate from UBC, you automatically become an alumna(f) or alumnus(m). You cross the stage at congregation, the Chancellor admits you into the UBC alumni body, and your relationship with the University enters a whole new phase. Now you begin to see the true value of your degree. You find yourself in the company of some amazing people – doctors, nurses, educators, artists, business and community leaders – people who could be your role models, mentors and friends.

Worldwide, there are about 250,000 UBC graduates. That's a big network and one that is totally open to you as you build your career and your life. We'll help you keep in touch with each other and with UBC through the award-winning Trek magazine, regular email newsletters and our online community, TrekConnect. You will be welcomed at mentoring, social, educational, and career networking events, whether you remain here in the Okanagan or go elsewhere. You can get involved with alumni network groups as far away as London and Hong Kong or as close as Kamloops and Kelowna.

UBC acknowledges the value of all that its students have brought and continue to bring to the University through their education and ensuing careers. You might be surprised at just who your fellow alumni are, their levels of accomplishment and influence. Brought together, we represent a significant, positive and progressive force. Remember our motto Tuum Est - UBC is still yours. This place is as much about you and those who have gone before you as it is about buildings and classes. So stay in touch.

You can reach Brenda Tournier, Manager of Alumni Relations in the Okanagan at 250.807.8167 or email brenda.tournier@ubc.ca. Check out the alumni website at www.alumni.ubc.ca and watch for an alumni webpage on the UBC Okanagan site as early as September.

THE GIFT OF LEARNING

Learning is not just about time spent in the classroom or lab. For some, the most powerful lessons learned during their post secondary experience are about belonging and being a contributing member of the university community. That need not end at graduation.

UBC Okanagan's vision is to provide students, faculty and staff with an intimate learning environment in which innovation and technology play a key role in the pursuit of knowledge.

The realization of this vision would not be possible without the generosity of alumni and friends of the university. Donations to UBC Okanagan ensure that students and the leaders of tomorrow are provided with the best education and research opportunities possible.

As you take a step forward towards your future, what better way to celebrate your success than to leave a contribution for the students who will follow in your footsteps. To learn about the many ways you can invest in the next generation of UBC Okanagan students, please contact the Development Office at 250.807.8565 or visit our web site at www.ubc.ca/okanagan/invest

Every gift matters.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENTS & CONTRIBUTIONS

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Prominent in the professions and the community, honorary degree recipients are recognized for their distinguished achievements in their respective endeavours and for the contributions their accomplishments make to the life of the university and the betterment of society. These degrees will be awarded during Spring Congregation.

The Honourable Thomas Edward Siddon, P.C.

The Honourable Thomas Edward Siddon, P.C., conducted research and was a professor of mechanical engineering at UBC for a decade before being elected to Parliament in 1978. Dr. Siddon was a Member of Parliament for 15 years and served as Minister of State for Science and Technology, Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, and Minister of National Defence.

His achievements in public office include establishing the foundation for the Canadian Space Agency and signing the International Space Station Agreement with the United States in 1984, as Minister of State for Science and Technology.

As Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, Dr. Siddon negotiated and signed the Nunavut Agreement-in-Principle and later the Nunavut Final Agreement which provided for the creation of that Canadian territory. He will accept his degree during the afternoon ceremony on June 8.

UBC OKANAGAN AWARD FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE AND INNOVATION

Recipients of the UBC Okanagan Award for Teaching Excellence and Innovation are nominated by colleagues, students and alumni. The award, including a $5,000 prize, recognizes the importance of teaching in creating an outstanding student experience. Recipients share a gift for communication, a dedication to learning and a passion for making their subject matter come alive in the classroom. The recipients are announced during the UBC Okanagan Learning Conference in early May and are recognized during the Spring Congregation.

Dr. Blair Spearman

Dr. Spearman is an associate professor of Mathematics in the Irving K. Barber School of Arts and Sciences. Dr. Spearman's passion for mathematics, ability to inspire and motivate students and capability in integrating teaching and research at both the undergraduate and graduate levels make him a worthy recipient of the first UBC Okanagan Award for Teaching Excellence and Innovation.
