MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

I write on behalf of all my colleagues on the UBC Board of Governors to convey our warmest congratulations to you, the new UBC graduates of 2008!

I know that some of you will have mixed feelings about completing your program and leaving the university. Graduation is the point at which one crosses a threshold, leaving behind the familiar setting of classroom and laboratory to venture into a new and largely unknown territory. But you are not going unprepared: you have had the benefit of an education at one of the best universities in Canada—indeed, one of the best in the world (UBC consistently ranks among the 50 top universities in world rankings), and you will be ready to meet any new challenge with confidence and enthusiasm.

Whether as a graduate student or as an undergraduate, at UBC Okanagan you have had many opportunities to sharpen your critical and analytical skills, to acquire professional training, to test problems and come up with solutions. Now has come the moment when you can put what you have learned into practice and make your own contributions to the betterment of society.

Whatever you choose to do next, your UBC degree will reflect the fact that you possess, not only the knowledge of your discipline, but also the qualities that distinguish a responsible citizen: tolerance and open-mindedness, a desire to help others, and a readiness to work for a civil and sustainable society.

These were the values held dear by our late Chancellor, Dr. Allan McEachern, who died earlier this year, and whose loss has been keenly felt around the University. Dr. McEachern was a jurist of great distinction, and served his native province as Chief Justice of both the Supreme Court of BC and the BC Court of Appeal. As a UBC alumnus, he was always intensely proud of his alma mater, and did everything in his power to promote the University's best interests. He took particular pleasure in the graduation ceremonies, and had a kind word for every one of the thousands of new graduates he welcomed into Convocation each year.

Dr. McEachern will be succeeded by Ms. Sarah Morgan-Silvester, who was elected Chancellor earlier this year and begins her three-year term in July 2008. She too is a UBC graduate of great distinction, serving as Chair of the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority and B.C. Women's Hospital and Health Centre Foundation, as well as being a member of David Suzuki Foundation's National Business Advisory Council. We welcome her into our midst, and look forward to working with her for the benefit of everyone in the UBC community.

I know that our Chancellor-elect joins me in wishing all our new graduates the greatest success in their future careers, and in expressing the hope that this university will always have a special place in your affections.

Brad Bennett

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

---

Like all rites of passage, graduation marks both a culmination and a new beginning. The ceremony is a public acknowledgement of a candidate's successful completion of a lengthy and rigorous preparation; at the same time, it is a signal to the world that the graduate is now ready to take on new responsibilities, meet new and complex challenges, and take his or her place in society as a fully contributing member.

Universities take graduation very seriously, and so they should: for the graduation ceremony, or Convocation as it is known at UBC Okanagan, is the most important event in the academic year. It brings us together, regardless of our disciplines, primarily to celebrate the achievements of our current group of graduating students, but also to reinforce our link with centuries-old traditions of teaching and learning. Such occasions enable us to give voice to the values that our university represents, including excellence, integrity, a thirst for knowledge, and a determination to use that knowledge to serve society.

As graduates of UBC, you will be joining the body of UBC grads that has grown since our first degree-granting ceremonies in 1916 to number over 250,000 people. Among that body have been parliamentarians and pop singers, architects and artists, teachers, doctors, broadcast journalists—it's hard to imagine a profession in which UBC graduates have not made a significant impact, both in Canada and around the world. Now it's your turn to make a choice and a contribution, and to use your education, not only for your own benefit, but for the benefit of society as a whole.

To some that may appear to be an impossible task—how can an individual hope to make any difference to a world beset by such seemingly insoluble problems as global warming, dwindling resources, endless military conflicts, or the aids pandemic? You might be forgiven for feeling inadequate in the face of such challenges and unable to effect any significant change. And yet you can make a change—and you will. Your education has given you the critical tools and the professional skills, the ability to develop and communicate your ideas, and an understanding of other cultures, that will help you to rise above your own uncertainties to take leadership roles and find solutions where others may see only problems.

Whatever choices you make, whatever career you choose or path you take in the future, I hope you will look back with pleasure on your experience at UBC and maintain contact with us in one way or another, perhaps as a member of the UBC Alumni Association. You will always be welcome here, and we look forward to learning about your personal and professional achievements as you build on the strong foundation provided by your UBC degree.

On behalf of the faculty and staff at UBC Okanagan, I offer warmest congratulations to all the members of the 2008 graduating class!

Stephen J. Toope
President and Vice-Chancellor

Elders, Chiefs, Board of Governors, dignitaries, UBC Okanagan faculty and staff, family, friends, visitors, students and graduates, on behalf of the Okanagan Nation Chiefs and our member communities we welcome you to our beautiful territory and to the UBC Okanagan Spring Convocation 2008. We are pleased to be provided this opportunity to extend our congratulations to all the new graduates of UBC Okanagan. We are honoured to be part of your Convocation. Ceremony and recognition of achievement, and the meaning inherent in special events like this one, have always been an integral part of syilx culture, beliefs and customs. Learning has always been fundamental to the well-being and survival of our communities.

Traditionally, Okanagan people valued life-long learning. Education and academic excellence are also a part of syilx culture. The honouring of one's intellect and knowledge has always been important. The Okanagan traditions and ceremonies awarded achievement no matter how big or small. Announcements were made to the Nation that "this is a day of significance to this person, (family and/or community) and you are all welcome to share in this celebration". The Okanagan shared their land, their teaching, and their culture with others and now as graduates, you too will have this opportunity to share your education with the community. Your educational attainment will serve you well, especially if you use it to serve your communities!

The Okanagan Nation Alliance and the UBC Okanagan have forged a new path of partnership and inclusion so that we can all learn to embrace, strengthen and celebrate our diversity. The pursuit of academic excellence will continue to advance and transform our societies. Okanagan participation in today's convocation ceremony and within this University bodes well for our future and our communities.

UBC BOARD OF GOVERNORS

UBC's 21-member Board of Governors comprises the chancellor, the president, eleven persons appointed by the lieutenant-governor, three faculty members elected by faculty, three full-time students elected by students and two people elected by and from the full-time employees of the university who are not faculty members.

By legislation, the board is responsible for the management, administration and control of the property, revenue, business and affairs of the university including the appointment of senior officials and faculty on the recommendation of the president. The governors represent diverse backgrounds, which provide valuable input during board deliberations.

UBC TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic costume is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, when the first Universities were founded. The regalia vary slightly from one University to another, and within a University, according to the status of the wearer. At the University of British Columbia, the undergraduate's gown is black.

The colours for the degrees being granted in 2007 at UBC Okanagan are as follows:

B.A. – University Blue

B.Ed. – White with University blue cord

B.F.A. – University blue with magenta cord

B.S.N. – Scarlet with University blue and white twisted cord

B.S.W. – Magenta

B.Sc. – Light blue

M.A. – Fully lined University blue

M.Ed. – Fully lined white with University blue cord

M.F.A. – Fully lined University blue with magenta cord

M.S.W. – Fully lined magenta

M.Sc. – Fully lined light blue

The hood for the honorary degree LL.D. is of scarlet broadcloth lined in dark blue velvet; for the D.Sc., it is lined in dark purple and for the D.Litt., it is lined in cream.

More information on degrees granted in Vancouver can be found at www.graduation.ubc.ca.

CONGREGATION OR CONVOCATION?

People often ask why UBC calls its graduation ceremonies "Congregation". There are no records to say why this term was originally adopted but it has been used by UBC since its first graduation ceremonies in 1916 and is believed to originate from its use in English institutions such as Oxford and Cambridge. According to Wikipedia, "a congregation is an assembly of people for a given purpose; with respect to a university, it is a formal meeting of senior members of the University. Examples include the Regent House in the University of Cambridge and the House of Congregation and the Ancient House of Congregation in the University of Oxford. Stemming from this tradition, in some universities a graduation ceremony is known as a congregation, even if the ceremony is not a meeting of the university's governing body in the traditional sense."

For whatever reason, UBC adopted this term for its graduation ceremonies in 1916 and has used it ever since when inviting faculty, students and guests to the Annual and more recently the Spring and Fall graduation ceremonies. UBC is unique amongst Canadian institutions in that it appears to be the only institution that still uses this term.

The term 'Convocation' at UBC is more often used to describe a group of people – defined by the University Act – including the Chancellor, President, members of the Senate, all faculty members and all graduates of the University. The Convocation, through the Chancellor who serves as its chair, confers degrees, including honorary degrees, and awards diplomas and certificates of proficiency.

In Fall 2007, UBC Vancouver Senate reconfirmed its preference to maintain the tradition of using the term 'Congregation' for its graduation ceremonies. In Spring 2008, the UBC Okanagan Senate passed a motion that "Convocation be adopted as the name for meetings of the UBC convocation held at UBC Okanagan for the purposes of conferring degrees, effective June 2008."

Did you know...

- UBC's first Congregation ceremony took place on May 4, 1916 in the Hotel Vancouver ballroom. There were 41 graduates.
- UBC's first graduate degrees were conferred in 1919.
- The first Congregation ceremony on the Point Grey campus was held in 1927.
- The first graduation ceremony was held at UBC Okanagan on June 9, 2006.
- The first graduate degrees were conferred at UBC Okanagan on June 6, 2008.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the Congregation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

The Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President, and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Congregation ceremonies.

The University Mace will be brought up from Vancouver for the Convocation ceremonies at UBC Okanagan. A new Mace will be created specifically for the Okanagan campus.

VANCOUVER CAMPUS

In the fall of 1957, the University commissioned Haida carver Bill Reid to undertake the project. Owing to Reid's heavy workload, he suggested that George Norris be asked to help design and carve the Mace.

Norris completed the Mace in 1959 and it was first used at the Fall Congregation where the Director of Ceremonies, Malcolm McGregor, carried it for the first time.

THE CHANCELLOR'S OKANAGAN CHAIR

In 2007, UBC Okanagan commissioned the creation of a new Chancellor's chair for use in Okanagan Convocation ceremonies. Handcrafted by master furniture maker Dennis Weidman of Lake Country, B.C., the chair was fashioned from cherry wood, a species selected for its significance in the Okanagan's long history as a fruit-growing region.

The chair's front panel features UBC's motto, Tuum Est, the UBC Okanagan logo laser engraved in the headrest panel, and UBC's coat of arms on each side panel.

Weidman invested more than 200 hours in the chair's construction and finishing. Its combination of lasting strength and elegance are the result of painstakingly fitted traditional mortise and tenon joinery hidden within the graceful design.

UBC Okanagan's Spring Congregation 2007 marked the debut of this new Chancellor's chair.

O CANADA

---

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,

The true north strong and free!

From far and wide, O Canada,

We stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

OKANAGAN SONG

The Okanagan Song is based on a traditional song style called skəlmxqin. Skəlmxqin songs belong to the Okanagan/Syilx people collectively. Songs of this style can be sung by any Okanagan/Syilx person using their own phrasing and their own emotion while maintaining the formal rhythm and structure. This song has been called the "Okanagan Song" or the "Okanagan Nation Anthem" because the phrasing and meaning were constructed to celebrate pride in being Okanagan.

Translation of suknaqinx skəlmxqinx

Note: the word aʔi translates three separate ways in this song.

Aʔi kʷu swi wi numtax
(given that we are good-looking/vibrant/strong)

Aʔi kʷu suknaqinx
(due to being Okanagan)

Aʔi axaʔ iʔ tmxʷulaʔxʷ
(because of this land)

Literation/meaning

We are beautiful
Because we are Okanagan
Because our land is beautiful

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

- Provincial legislature passes a new "University Act" establishing The University of British Columbia. It provides for a Chancellor, a Convocation, a President, and a Board of Governors to manage the university's administration, property and business affairs, and a Senate to administer academic matters.

1910

- After a province-wide survey, Point Grey is selected as the site of UBC's new campus.

1913

- Dr. Frank Fairchild Wesbrook appointed first President of UBC.

1915

- The University of British Columbia opens in temporary headquarters at the former MUCBC facilities (nicknamed the "Fairview Shacks" after the surrounding neighbourhood) adjacent to Vancouver General Hospital. There are three faculties: Arts and Science, Applied Science and Agriculture. Student enrolment in September is 379 and total number of full- and part-time faculty is 34.

1922

- Tired of over-crowded conditions and inadequate facilities, UBC students launch a campaign known as "Build the University" to resume construction at the Point Grey campus. With 56,000 names on a petition for the government, 1,200 students with floats, bands and banners march through the streets of downtown Vancouver to the Point Grey campus. This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of BC to resume work on the Point Grey site. The "Great Trek" represents one of the greatest efforts of an undergraduate student body in support of its university and still reflects the spirit and pride of UBC students.

1925

- UBC moves to Point Grey campus.

1940

- Students contribute to the construction of Brock Hall, the university's first student union building.

UBC students march through the streets of Vancouver in the "Great Trek" of 1922.

1951

- Student initiative leads to construction of War Memorial Gymnasium, as a memorial to the British Columbians who died serving their country.

1979

- UBC awards its 100,000th degree.

1989

- UBC launches the “World of Opportunity” fundraising campaign to pay for new buildings, facilities, programmes, and scholarships. By the time it ends in 1993, this overwhelmingly successful campaign raises a total of $262 million.

1993

- U.S. President Bill Clinton and Russian President Boris Yeltsin meet at UBC during the “Vancouver Summit.”
- Dr. Michael Smith receives the Nobel Prize.

1997

- Dr. Martha C. Piper becomes UBC’s new President.
- The Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders’ Meeting brings the heads of the 18 leading economies around the Pacific Rim to Vancouver.

2000

- UBC celebrates 75 years at the Point Grey campus—which has changed considerably over the years—as it confers close to 6,000 degrees to graduating UBC students.

2001

- UBC opens its new downtown campus, UBC at Robson Square.

2004

- The B.C. Government announces the creation of UBC Okanagan, centered in Kelowna.
- 3 Nobel Peace Prize Laureates, – His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Dr. Shirin Ebadi – are given Honorary degrees at a special ceremony.

2005

- The Okanagan Nation Alliance welcomes UBC onto the traditional Okanagan territory during a celebration on the new UBC Okanagan campus.
- UBC Okanagan officially opens in Kelowna and welcomes its first students onto campus.

2006

- The first congregation ceremony is held for UBC Okanagan graduates.
- Professor Stephen J. Toope becomes UBC’s new President.
- Dr. Doug Owsram is hired as the Deputy Vice-Chancellor of UBC Okanagan

2007

- UBC awards its 200,000th degree.

2008

- UBC celebrates the Centenary of the Signing of the University Act.
- Sarah Morgan-Silvester is elected as the 17th Chancellor of UBC, only the second woman in the history of the University to hold this position.
- The first graduate degrees are conferred at UBC Okanagan on June 6, 2008.

SUSTAINABILITY PLEDGE

Imagine all UBC graduating students making a collective statement of commitment to improving the sustainability of our communities.

UBC students have joined university and college graduates across North America in a growing movement to redefine the purpose of education. Students are committing to use their knowledge wisely to create positive change in the world.

Through the UBC Sustainability Pledge, you have the opportunity to commit to working toward a career and lifestyle with a conscience. The Pledge also links you to resources that will help you incorporate social, ecological, and economic aspects of sustainability into your professional and personal life.

The Pledge is more than just a personal commitment. Our collective voice sends a strong message to the university and the greater community that UBC students care about sustainability.

Take a graduating step to creating a more sustainable society, sign now at: www.sustain.ubc.ca/sustainable\_u. ## GOODBYE, STUDENTS. HELLO ALUMNI!

Welcome, Class of 2008, to the Alumni Family. Today we celebrate all you have worked for and achieved in your time at UBC.

Many students don't realize that when you graduate from UBC, you automatically become an alumna(f) or alumnus(m). You cross the stage at convocation, the Chancellor admits you into the UBC alumni body, and your relationship with the University enters a whole new phase. Now you begin to see the true value of your degree(s). You find yourself in the company of some amazing people – doctors, nurses, educators, artists, business and community leaders – people who could be your role models, mentors and friends.

UBC acknowledges the value of all that its students have brought and continue to bring to the University through their education and ensuing careers. You might be surprised at just who your fellow alumni are, their levels of accomplishment and influence. Brought together, we represent a significant, and positive force. Remember our motto Tuum Est – UBC is still yours. This place is as much about you and those who have gone before you as it is about buildings and classes. So stay in touch.

Worldwide, there are about 250,000 UBC graduates. That's a big network and one that is totally open to you as you build your career and your life. We'll help you keep in touch with each other and with UBC through the award-winning Trek magazine, regular email newsletters and our online community, TrekConnect. You will be welcomed at mentoring, social, educational, and career networking events, whether you remain here in the Okanagan or go elsewhere. You can get involved with alumni network groups as far away as London and Hong Kong or as close as Kamloops and Kelowna.

The door at UBC Okanagan is always open to you.

THE GIFT OF LEARNING

Learning is not just about time spent in the classroom or lab. For some, the most powerful lessons learned during their post secondary experience are about belonging and being a contributing member of the university community. That need not end at graduation.

UBC Okanagan's vision is to provide students, faculty and staff with an intimate learning environment in which innovation and technology play a key role in the pursuit of knowledge.

The realization of this vision would not be possible without the generosity of alumni and friends of the university. Donations to UBC Okanagan ensure that students and the leaders of tomorrow are provided with the best education and research opportunities possible.

As you take a step forward towards your future, what better way to celebrate your success than to leave a contribution for the students who will follow in your footsteps. To learn about the many ways you can invest in the next generation of UBC Okanagan students, please contact the Development Office:

GRAD CLASS 2008 GIFT

As a parting gift to UBC Okanagan, the Graduating Class of 2008 has placed a bench outside of the Library Building. A tree will also be planted on behalf of the Graduating Class.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENTS & CONTRIBUTIONS

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Prominent in the professions and the community, honorary degree recipients are recognized for their distinguished achievements in their respective endeavours and for the contributions their accomplishments make to the life of the university and the betterment of society. These degrees will be awarded during Spring Convocation.

Dr. Bryan Kolb

One of the world's leading neuroscientists, Dr. Bryan Kolb, was the first to show how the growth of new brain cells can restore psychological and behavioural function. His research has spurred new treatments to help victims of stroke, those living with Alzheimer's Disease, or afflicted by drug abuse or head injuries.

Dr. Kolb received his Ph.D. from Pennsylvania State University in 1973. He conducted post-doctoral work at the University of Western Ontario and the Montreal Neurological Institute. He is currently a Professor of Psychology and Neuroscience at the University of Lethbridge.

Dr. Kolb is a Killam Fellow, and a Fellow of the Canadian Psychological Association, the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the Royal Society of Canada. He is a recipient of the Hebb Prize from the Canadian Psychological Association, and is a former president of the Canadian Society for Brain, Behaviour, and Cognitive Science.

UBC OKANAGAN AWARD FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE AND INNOVATION

Recipients of the UBC Okanagan Award for Teaching Excellence and Innovation are nominated by colleagues, students and alumni. The award, including a $5,000 prize, recognizes the importance of teaching in creating an outstanding student experience. Recipients share a gift for communication, a dedication to learning and a passion for making their subject matter come alive in the classroom. The recipients are announced during the UBC Okanagan Learning Conference in early May and are recognized during the Spring Convocation.

Dr. Jan Cioe

Dr. Jan Cioe holds a Ph.D. in physiological and comparative psychology from the University of Western Ontario, and a master's degree in criminology from the University of Cambridge. Dr. Cioe is an exemplary professor who has become known for his commitment to developing innovative teaching approaches to ensure all students master the course material. His excitement and enthusiasm, and a passion for teaching and the subjects he teaches, make him an outstanding recipient of the UBC Okanagan Award for Teaching Excellence and Innovation.
