MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Many congratulations on your achievement! Graduation is a significant milestone in your education, and in achieving this goal, you have demonstrated the commitment, creativity, and talent you will need to succeed in your chosen career. The entire UBC community wishes you the very best on this important occasion.

No matter how many times I attend graduation ceremonies, I find them to be moving and exciting occasions. I am always uplifted by the joy on the faces of our graduates as they come together, proudly wearing their UBC regalia. Graduation provides the University with an opportunity to recognize your achievements publicly and to help you, in turn, acknowledge the support you have received from family, friends, and staff members who have guided you during a challenging and demanding period in your life.

Over the course of your program, you have developed friendships that will last a lifetime. You have also become a valued member of our vibrant UBC community. I invite you to maintain your relationship with the university to which you have already dedicated so much time, hard work and energy. With 260,000 graduates spread over 120 countries, the Alumni Association is an invaluable resource for you as you embark on your career, forging connections around the world and across all disciplines. I urge you to take advantage of and contribute to this extraordinary community of alumni who began their professional lives at UBC.

New graduates from UBC's Okanagan campus can take special pride in their accomplishments. Over a very short time, your institution has acquired a remarkable reputation for its innovative teaching and research. You have played an important role in the success of our Okanagan campus, and you should take pride and satisfaction in the knowledge that you have graduated from an outstanding university that you helped to build.

Graduation day is an opportunity for you to reflect both on the past and on the future. This event may well signal a very significant change of direction in your life. Whatever direction you choose to take, the knowledge and skills that you have developed here will stand you in good stead, not only in your professional life but also as a contributing member of society.

Tuum est.

Sarah Morgan-Silvester
Chancellor

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Where to from here?

If you know the answer to that question, and the destination is one that excites you – whether it's the first stage of a promising career, international service, graduate school, or a well-deserved vacation on the beaches of Mexico – you are indeed fortunate that the way forward is clear and unfettered by the travails of student life.

If, on the other hand, you are not yet sure what lies ahead, do not for a moment consider yourself alone or unlucky. Exhausted and concerned perhaps, but never alone and never unlucky.

Irrespective of what faculty or program in which you were enrolled, or what level of degree you have completed, now is the time to pause, take a deep breath of spring air, admire the fruit blossoms that seemed to take forever to unfold this year, and reflect upon how your life is now profoundly different.

You are a graduate of the University of British Columbia.

Practise saying it a few times to your room-mate, your aunt, your little brother, the dog. Make it the final syllables you ever utter to your landlord. And if that isn't enough to make you feel good about what you have achieved, perhaps a bit more quiet reflection is warranted.

In the meantime, I want to tell you what I think it means to be an alumnus or alumna of one of Canada's and the world's finest universities, or more importantly, what it says, in no uncertain terms, about you.

It says: I am intelligent and resourceful. I am disciplined in both short-term and long-term endeavours. I am a capable researcher and an independent thinker. I can be counted upon to deliver results under trying circumstances. I can manage and optimize financial resources.

I am a problem solver. I am a "multi-tasker." I can listen with an open mind to opposing points of view and synthesize an intelligent evidence-backed conclusion. I have an open heart to the richness of diversity. I have acquired deeper understandings about other cultures, about why we are different, and how we are the same. I have experience in interdisciplinary environments. I have stick-to-it-ness and a can-do attitude. I can interact with other people to achieve common objectives. I am a skilled communicator.

Although you may hope to one day have a more definitive descriptor about who and what you are – a teacher, chartered accountant, regional vice-president, UN field worker, astronaut, nurse, business owner, social worker, researcher or Olympic athlete to only skim the surface of possibilities – take pride in this moment and have faith in the future.

All too often as we navigate the uncertain waters of life in the 21st century, we are plagued by an innate need to have immediate answers to all questions, when in reality what we really need is to savour precious given moments and just drift a little further downstream.

And just one more thing. Graduation should never mean goodbye. It's your university – today and always.

Warmest congratulations!

Stephen J. Toope
President and Vice-Chancellor

W'AY SYILX WELCOME

Elders, Chiefs, Board of Governors, dignitaries, Okanagan faculty, staff, family, friends, visitors, students and graduates, on behalf of the Okanagan Nation Chiefs and our member communities we welcome you to our beautiful territory and to UBC's Okanagan Campus Spring Convocation 2011. We are pleased to be provided this opportunity to extend our congratulations to all the new Okanagan graduates of UBC. We are honoured to be part of your Convocation. Ceremony and recognition of achievement, and the meaning inherent in special events like this one, have always been an integral part of syilx culture, beliefs and customs. Learning has always been fundamental to the well-being and survival of our communities, Okanagan people valued life-long learning. Education and academic excellence are also a part of syilx culture. The honoring of one's intellect and knowledge has always been important. The syilx traditions and ceremonies awarded achievement no matter how big or small. Announcements were made to the Nation that "this is a day of significance to this person, (family and/or community) and you are all welcome to share in this celebration". The Okanagan shared their land, their teaching, and their culture with others and now as graduates, you too will have this opportunity to share your education with the community. Your educational attainment will serve you well, especially if you use it to serve your communities! The Okanagan Nation Alliance and UBC have forged a new path of partnership and inclusion so that we can all learn to embrace, strengthen and celebrate our diversity. The pursuit of academic excellence will continue to advance and transform our societies. Okanagan participation in today's convocation ceremony and within this University bodes well for our future and our communities.

UBC TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic costume is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, when the first Universities were founded. The regalia vary slightly from one University to another, and within a University, according to the status of the wearer. At the University of British Columbia, the undergraduate's and Master's gown are black.

The colours for the degrees being granted in 2011 at UBC's Okanagan campus are as follows:

- B.A. - University Blue
- B.A.H.S. - University Blue with a scarlet cord
- B.Ed. - White with University blue cord
- B.F.A. - University blue with magenta cord
- B.H.K. - Malachite green
- B.Mgt. - Light grey with a black and gold cord
- B.S.N. - Scarlet with University blue and white twisted cord
- B.S.W. - Magenta
- B.Sc. - Light blue
- M.A. - Fully lined University blue
- M.A.Sc. - Fully lined scarlet
- M.Ed. - Fully lined white with University blue cord
- M.F.A. - Fully lined University blue with magenta cord
- M.S.N. - Fully lined scarlet with blue and white cord
- M.S.W. - Fully lined magenta
- M.Sc. - Fully lined light blue

The Bachelor's hood is edged with the distinctive colour. The Master's hood is the same as the Bachelor's, except that it is lined with the distinctive colour.

The regalia of the Ph.D. consists of a gown, Cambridge style, of maroon silk with front facing-panel and sleeves of University blue with gold piping; a hood, Cambridge pattern, of blue silk outside and gold lining; a cap, decanal bonnet, of maroon silk with gold cord and tassel.

The hood for the honorary degree LL.D. is of scarlet broadcloth lined in dark blue velvet; for the D.Sc., it is lined in dark purple and for the D.Litt., it is lined in cream.

More information on degrees granted in Vancouver can be found at www.graduation.ubc.ca.

CONGREGATION OR CONVOCATION?

People often ask why UBC calls its graduation ceremonies "Congregation." There are no records to say why this term was originally adopted but it has been used by UBC since its first graduation ceremonies in 1916 and is believed to originate from its use in English institutions such as Oxford and Cambridge. According to Wikipedia, "a congregation is an assembly of people for a given purpose; with respect to a university, it is a formal meeting of senior members of the University. Examples include the Regent House in the University of Cambridge and the House of Congregation and the Ancient House of Congregation in the University of Oxford. Stemming from this tradition, in some universities a graduation ceremony is known as a congregation, even if the ceremony is not a meeting of the university's governing body in the traditional sense."

For whatever reason, UBC adopted this term for its graduation ceremonies in 1916 and has used it ever since when inviting faculty, students and guests to the Annual and more recently the Spring and Fall graduation ceremonies. UBC is unique amongst Canadian institutions in that it appears to be the only institution that still uses this term.

The term 'Convocation' at UBC is more often used to describe a group of people - defined by the University Act - including the Chancellor, President, members of the Senate, all faculty members and all graduates of the University. The Convocation, through the Chancellor who serves as its chair, confers degrees, including honorary degrees, and awards diplomas and certificates of proficiency.

In Fall 2007, UBC Vancouver Senate reconfirmed its preference to maintain the tradition of using the term 'Congregation' for its graduation ceremonies. In Spring 2008, the UBC Okanagan Senate passed a motion that "Convocation be adopted as the name for meetings of the UBC convocation held at UBC Okanagan for the purposes of conferring degrees, effective June 2008."

Did you know...?

- UBC's first Congregation ceremony took place on May 4, 1916 in the Hotel Vancouver ballroom. There were 41 graduates.
- UBC's first graduate degrees were conferred in 1919.
- The first Congregation ceremony on the Point Grey campus was held in 1927.
- The first graduation ceremony was held at UBC 's Okanagan campus on June 9, 2006.
- The first graduate degrees were conferred at UBC's Okanagan campus on June 6, 2008.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the UBC Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the Convocation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

The Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Convocation ceremonies.

Created by First Nations artist Sheldon Louis of the Okanagan Indian Band, the University Mace is carved from a single piece of alder wood, and combines Okanagan Nation traditions with university customs. The main art work on the Mace features three symbolic spirit icons—a mother bear with her two cubs, the image of the mountains, and water — given to UBC Okanagan in 2005 by the Okanagan Nation elders. The spirit icon gifts were selected by a group of First Nation elders, led by Andrew McGinnis, an Okanagan Traditional Medicine Keeper from the Penticton Indian Band, and Victor Antoine, an elder of the Okanagan Indian Band. Each spirit icon was chosen carefully for its special significance to the region, reflecting local Okanagan Nation tradition, culture and knowledge.

The Mace also features a number of university symbols, including the UBC Okanagan logo, the University coat of arms and the UBC motto Tuum Est - It's Yours. In addition, the back of the Mace displays the word Suknaqinx, which is of the Nsyilxcen language, spoken by the Okanagan's original people. Roughly translated, it means "the ones who stand on the hill and are seen and heard from far away."

The University Mace, which was carved in the shape of a paddle, representing the importance of Okanagan Lake to the region's people, is also inlaid with silver, applied by First Nations silversmith artist Justin Terbasket of the Lower Similkameen Indian Band. The Mace was used for the first time at the 2009 Convocation Ceremonies.

THE CHANCELLOR'S OKANAGAN CHAIR

In 2007, UBC's Okanagan campus commissioned the creation of a new Chancellor's chair for use in Okanagan Convocation ceremonies. Handcrafted by master furniture maker Dennis Weidman of Lake Country, B.C., the chair was fashioned from cherry wood, a species selected for its significance in the Okanagan's long history as a fruit-growing region.

The chair's front panel features UBC's motto, Tuum Est, the UBC logo laser engraved in the headrest panel, and UBC's coat of arms on each side panel.

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true north strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

OKANAGAN SONG

The Okanagan Song is based on a traditional song style called skəlmxqin. Skəlmxqin songs belong to the Okanagan/Syilx people collectively. Songs of this style can be sung by any Okanagan/Syilx person using their own phrasing and their own emotion while maintaining the formal rhythm and structure. This song has been called the "Okanagan Song" or the "Okanagan Nation Anthem" because the phrasing and meaning were constructed to celebrate pride in being Okanagan.

Translation of suknaqinx skəlmxqinx

Note: the word aʔi translates three separate ways in this song.

Aʔi kʷu swi wi numtax
(given that we are good-looking/vibrant/strong)

Aʔi kʷu suknaqinx
(due to being Okanagan)

Aʔi axaʔ iʔ tmxʷulaʔxʷ
(because of this land)

Literation/meaning

We are beautiful
Because we are Okanagan
Because our land is beautiful

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

- Provincial legislature passes a new "University Act" establishing The University of British Columbia. It provides for a Chancellor, a Convocation, a President, and a Board of Governors to manage the university's administration, property and business affairs, and a Senate to administer academic matters.

1910

- After a province-wide survey, Point Grey is selected as the site of UBC's new campus.

1913

- Dr. Frank Fairchild Wesbrook appointed first President of UBC.

1915

- The University of British Columbia opens in temporary headquarters at the former MUCBC facilities (nicknamed the "Fairview Shacks" after the surrounding neighbourhood) adjacent to Vancouver General Hospital. There are three faculties: Arts and Science, Applied Science and Agriculture. Student enrolment in September is 379 and total number of full- and part-time faculty is 34.

1922

- Tired of over-crowded conditions and inadequate facilities, UBC students launch a campaign known as "Build the University" to resume construction at the Point Grey campus. With 56,000 names on a petition for the government, 1,200 students with floats, bands and banners march through the streets of downtown Vancouver to the Point Grey campus. This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of B.C. to resume work on the Point Grey site. The "Great Trek" represents one of the greatest efforts of an undergraduate student body in support of its university and still reflects the spirit and pride of UBC students.

1925

- UBC moves to Point Grey campus.

1940

- Students contribute to the construction of Brock Hall, the university's first student union building.

1951

- Student initiative leads to construction of War Memorial Gymnasium, as a memorial to the British Columbians who died serving their country.

1979

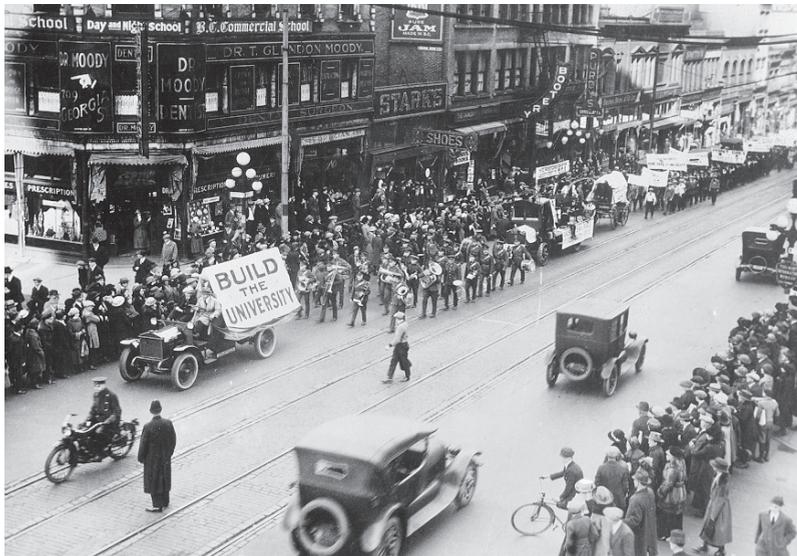

- UBC awards its 100,000th degree.

1989

- UBC launches the "World of Opportunity" fundraising campaign to pay for new buildings, facilities, programmes, and scholarships. By the time it ends in 1993, this overwhelmingly successful campaign raises a total of $262 million.

1993

- U.S. President Bill Clinton and Russian President Boris Yeltsin meet at UBC during the "Vancouver Summit."
- Dr. Michael Smith receives the Nobel Prize.

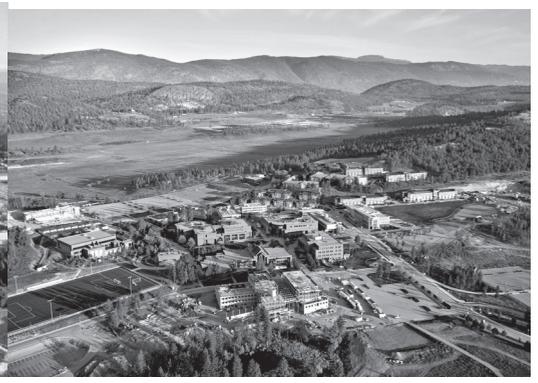

UBC students march through the streets of Vancouver in the "Great Trek" of 1922.

1997

- Dr. Martha C. Piper becomes UBC's new President.
- The Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders' Meeting brings the heads of the 18 leading economies around the Pacific Rim to Vancouver.

2000

- UBC celebrates 75 years at the Point Grey campus—which has changed considerably over the years—as it confers close to 6,000 degrees to graduating UBC students.

2001

- UBC opens its new downtown campus, UBC at Robson Square.

2004

- The Government of B.C. announces the creation of UBC Okanagan in Kelowna.
- 3 Nobel Peace Prize Laureates - His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Dr. Shirin Ebadi - are given honorary degrees at a special ceremony.

2005

- The Okanagan Nation Alliance welcomes UBC to the traditional Okanagan territory during a celebration on the new Okanagan campus.
- UBC Okanagan officially opens in Kelowna and welcomes its first students onto campus.

2006

- The first Congregation ceremony is held for UBC's Okanagan graduates.
- Professor Stephen J. Toope becomes UBC's new President.
- Dr. Doug Owram is hired as the Deputy Vice-Chancellor UBC's Okanagan campus.

2007

- UBC awards its 200,000th degree.

2008

- UBC celebrates the centenary of the signing of The University Act.
- Sarah Morgan-Silvester is elected as the 17th Chancellor of UBC, only the second woman in the history of the University to hold this position.
- The first graduate degrees are conferred at UBC's Okanagan campus on June 6, 2008.
- Okanagan campus varsity athletics teams become the UBC Okanagan Heat.
- UBC opens Charles E. Fipke Centre for Innovative Research on the Okanagan campus

2009

- "Class of 2009" students who started at UBC's Okanagan campus in its first year, 2005, receive degrees at June 5 Convocation ceremony.

2010

- The Okanagan campus officially opens the University Centre and J. Peter Meekison Student Centre.
- "Class of 2010" includes the first graduates from the School of Engineering.

- First Bachelor of Human Kinetics degrees conferred.
- Max Jones receives first Ph.D. to be started and completed entirely at UBC's Okanagan campus.

UBC – A RELATIONSHIP FOR LIFE

Welcome, Class of 2011, to your new and honoured place in the UBC community. Today we celebrate all you have worked for and achieved in your time as a student; and the promise of your life as an alum.

Many students don't realize that when you graduate from UBC, you automatically become an alumna(f) or alumnus(m). You cross the stage at convocation, the Chancellor admits you into UBC's alumni body and your relationship with the University enters a whole new phase. Now you begin to see the true value of your degree(s). And you won't have to go far to find yourself in the company of amazing people – educators, artists, doctors, nurses, business and community leaders – UBC grads who will be your role models, mentors, colleagues and friends.

UBC acknowledges the value of all that our students have brought and continue to bring to our community. You might be surprised at just who your fellow alumni are, their levels of accomplishment, influence and contribution. Brought together, we represent a significant and positive force. Remember our motto Tuum Est – UBC is still yours. This place is as much about you as it is about buildings and classes. So reach out. Stay in touch. Ask for help when you need it – and lend a hand when you can.

Worldwide, there are well over a quarter million UBC graduates. That's a powerful network and one that is totally open to you as you build your career and your life. We'll help you connect through our newsletters, web pages and social networks. You will receive a warm welcome at mentoring, cultural, educational and career-building events, whether you stay here in the Okanagan or go elsewhere. You can get involved with our New Alumni Council (NAC) and other alumni groups as far away as London and Seoul or as close as Kelowna and Calgary.

The door is always open. It's only up to you to walk through.

Just remember that to keep you in the loop, we'll need at least a current email address. Please send yours to erica.triggs@ubc.ca or visit www.ubc.ca/okanagan/alumnirelations for more information.

THE GIFT OF LEARNING

Learning is a lifelong journey that transcends the classroom or the lab. For some, the most powerful lessons gleaned from their time at UBC's Okanagan campus are about belonging and being a contributing member of a community. That doesn't end at graduation.

UBC's Okanagan vision is to provide students, faculty, and staff with an intimate learning environment in which innovation, technology, and community play key roles in the pursuit of knowledge.

The realization of this vision would not be possible without the generosity of alumni and friends of the University. Donations to UBC's Okanagan campus ensure that today's students and tomorrow's leaders have the best education and research opportunities possible, creating a vibrant and healthy future for us all.

To learn about the many ways you can invest in the next generation of UBC students, please contact the Development Office at 250 807 8565 or visit our website at www.ubc.ca/okanagan/invest

Every gift matters.

GRAD CLASS 2011 GIFT

With a legacy gift symbolic of lifelong ties, the Class of 2011 has placed the newest in a series of commemorative stone tablets for the Okanagan campus. Year after year, new tablets listing all graduating students are placed as a lasting tribute to each and every proud alumnus who once worked and played here.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENTS & CONTRIBUTIONS

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Prominent in the professions and the community, honorary degree recipients are recognized for their distinguished achievements in their respective endeavours and for the contributions their accomplishments make to the life of the University and the betterment of society. These degrees will be awarded during Spring Convocation.

W. J. BRAD BENNETT

Doctor of Laws, honoris causa

W. J. Brad Bennett has a long and distinguished record of community service in the Okanagan and leadership in higher education in British Columbia. He served as Chair of UBC's Board of Governors for five years, and was instrumental in the creation of UBC's Okanagan campus.

Since 1990, Bennett has been the president of McIntosh Properties Ltd., a real estate investment and holding company. He is a director of the Premier's Technology Council, UBC Properties Trust Board, a trustee and member of the Executive Advisory Board of the Fraser Institute, and a member of the BC Business Laureates Hall of Fame Cabinet. Bennett has also served as Chair of the Kelowna General Hospital Foundation, the Okanagan University College board, and was the first co-chair of the Okanagan Partnership, a community-led, non-profit society dedicated to the vision of a prosperous and sustainable Okanagan region. He is a recipient of the Queen Elizabeth II Golden Jubilee Medal, and the Honorary Alumni Award from UBC. In October 2010, Bennett was awarded the Order of British Columbia.

DEEPA MEHTA

Doctor of Letters, honoris causa

Deepa Mehta is a Genie Award-winning and Academy Award-nominated Indian-born Canadian film director and screenwriter. She began her career as a television and motion picture editor, producer and director, after coming to Canada from India in 1973.

In 1996, Mehta wrote, directed and produced Fire, the first film in her "elemental trilogy." It became the subject of controversy in India as Hindu fundamentalists pressured the Indian government to ban the film because of its lesbian content and questioning of the destiny of marginalized Indian women. The film went on to receive 14 international awards. The next instalments, Earth and Water, also drew critical acclaim. Water, centering on the practice of child marriage and the treatment of widows, was nominated for an Academy Award in 2007 (Best Foreign Film) and won three Genie awards, including best film. Mehta also directed several English-language films set in Canada, including The Republic of Love (2003) and Heaven on Earth (2008) which deals with domestic violence.

AWARD FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE AND INNOVATION – SENIOR FACULTY

DR. JOYCE BOON

Associate Professor, Biology
Irving K. Barber School of Arts and Sciences

An innovative, caring teacher who nurtures, encourages and pushes student to learn, Dr. Joyce Boon is faculty sponsor for the Biochemistry Course Union, and introduced to the Okanagan the 'Math, Science Infinite Choices' program, which encourages young women to consider science as a career option.

DR. CAROLYN LABUN

Senior Instructor, School of Engineering
Faculty of Applied Science

Dr. Carolyn Labun is a passionate and dedicated teacher who puts students first. She uses novel assignments and projects to challenge students, and is devoted to building a learning community with her colleagues and students.

AWARD FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE AND INNOVATION – JUNIOR FACULTY

DR. CHRISTOPHER SCHNEIDER

Assistant Professor, Sociology
Irving K. Barber School of Arts and Sciences

Dr. Christopher Schneider is a knowledgeable and enthusiastic professor who excites students about their studies. He often applies theories from coursework to experiences in university life through group discussions, and engages students with video and newspaper articles to spark discussion and illustrate sociology and criminology concepts.
