MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Warmest congratulations! Your graduation today from The University of British Columbia signals an important milestone in your personal lives and the lives of those who have supported you in your educational efforts. It's also a transformational occasion, one that renders you different in the eyes of the world than you were the day before you officially became a graduate of one of the world's great universities. Irrespective of which degree you have attained, you have made a compelling statement about your skills and character.

You are not merely intelligent; you are also disciplined and resourceful. You are focused and determined in both short-term and long-term endeavors. You are a skilled researcher and an independent thinker. You are a problem solver who can be counted upon to succeed under trying circumstances. You can listen with an open mind to opposing points of view and articulate an intelligent evidence-backed conclusion. You have flourished in an atmosphere of rich diversity. You have collaborated with others to achieve common objectives.

You have acquired the essential prerequisites of leadership, and are now well positioned to chart the course for the next generation of writers, artists, business and health professionals, engineers, lawyers, humanists, scientists and teachers. Wherever you choose to make your contribution, you have the skills to shape society's actions and exert a powerful influence on the coming generations. As you prepare to assume these roles, I hope you will remember the critical role that UBC has played in your preparation. Looking ahead, I hope your educational achievements are a source of confidence as you go about finding solutions to some of our most pressing problems.

I encourage you to maintain your relationship with the university to which you have already dedicated so much time, creativity, and energy. With more than 285,000 graduates spread over 120 countries, the Alumni Association is an invaluable resource for you as you embark on your career. Please take advantage of and contribute to this extraordinary community of alumni who began their professional lives at UBC, and who form a network that stretches around the world and all fields of endeavor.

As for this transformational day, the entire UBC community applauds you on your accomplishments and celebrates with you. Indeed, it is our sincere hope that this is a particularly joyous occasion for you and those who have supported you along the way, and that you will cherish the knowledge that UBC is, and will forever be, your university.

Tuum est!

---

As I was preparing to write this message, TIME Magazine published its annual list of “the 100 most influential people in the world.” They gave the issue eight different covers; I chose the one bearing the image of Malala Yousafzai. Now 15 years old, Yousafzai is the Pakistani girl whose rise to prominence as an advocate for education and women’s rights earned her a blog with the BBC and made her the subject of a New York Times documentary film. She was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize and the International Children’s Peace Prize, and was awarded Pakistan’s first National Youth Peace Prize. Influence indeed.

Late last year, as you were preparing for fall midterms, she was shot in the head and neck by Taliban gunmen on her way home from school. The attempt to silence her backfired. Yousafzai lived, and this year she returned to school. As TIME reported, “the Taliban almost made Malala a martyr; they succeeded in making her a symbol.” Influence of a very different kind.

With the slogan “I am Malala” as the rallying cry, UN Special Envoy for Global Education Gordon Brown launched a petition calling for all children worldwide to be in school by the end of 2015. There are currently 61 million of them who are not. Sixty-one million faces and names that will never appear in TIME’s prestigious list. Yet those 61 million turn the notion of influence entirely on its head, for it’s their influence that inspired Malala Yousafzai to write, to speak, to agitate ... to live.

How, now, will you use yours? How will you respond to the influences of others—good and bad—upon your life? And what influence will UBC have had on the choices you will make? It is my hope that your years here have helped you turn your innate intelligence toward the beginnings of wisdom; your enormous energy toward discipline; your intellectual skills toward an independence of thought; your curiosity toward a deep respect for diversity; and your individuality toward the possibilities of interdependence.

Today, you join UBC’s 280,000+ alumni, an illustrious list that includes heads of state, Olympic athletes, famous authors, artists, actors and inventors, medical pioneers, community builders, and influencers in every field. It also includes thousands more who exert their unique influence daily in the way they live their lives, the grace they show in adversity, and their willingness to be moved to action by the struggles of others.

In the end, I set TIME Magazine aside. Its list was not nearly so compelling to me as the list of names that will be read aloud today. Your names. I look forward to seeing what you do with your influence. Tu um est: it’s up to you.

Proceed.

President and Vice-Chancellor

Elders, Chiefs, Board of Governors, dignitaries, Okanagan faculty, staff, family, friends, visitors, students and graduates, on behalf of the Okanagan Nation Chiefs and our member communities we welcome you to our beautiful territory and to UBC's Okanagan Campus Spring Convocation 2013. We are pleased to be provided this opportunity to extend our congratulations to all the new Okanagan graduates of UBC. We are honoured to be part of your Convocation. Ceremony and recognition of achievement, and the meaning inherent in special events like this one, have always been an integral part of syilx culture, beliefs and customs. Learning has always been fundamental to the well-being and survival of our communities, Okanagan people valued life-long learning. Education and academic excellence are also a part of syilx culture. The honoring of one's intellect and knowledge has always been important. The syilx traditions and ceremonies awarded achievement no matter how big or small. Announcements were made to the Nation that "this is a day of significance to this person, (family and/or community) and you are all welcome to share in this celebration". The Okanagan shared their land, their teaching, and their culture with others and now as graduates, you too will have this opportunity to share your education with the community. Your educational attainment will serve you well, especially if you use it to serve your communities! The Okanagan Nation Alliance and UBC have forged a new path of partnership and inclusion so that we can all learn to embrace, strengthen and celebrate our diversity. The pursuit of academic excellence will continue to advance and transform our societies. Okanagan participation in today's convocation ceremony and within this University bodes well for our future and our communities.

UBC TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic costume is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, when the first Universities were founded. The regalia vary slightly from one University to another, and within a University, according to the status of the wearer. At the University of British Columbia, the undergraduate's and Master's gown are black.

The colours for the degrees being granted in 2013 at UBC's Okanagan campus are as follows:

B.A.Sc. – Scarlet
B.A. – University Blue
B.A.H.S. – University Blue with a scarlet cord
B.Ed. – White with University blue cord
B.F.A. – University blue with magenta cord
B.H.K. – Malachite green
B.Mgt. – Light grey with a black and gold cord
B.S.N. – Scarlet with University blue and white twisted cord
B.S.W. – Magenta
B.Sc. – Light blue
M.A. – Fully lined University blue
M.A.Sc. – Fully lined scarlet
M.Ed. – Fully lined white with University blue cord
M.Eng. – Fully lined scarlet with dark blue cord
M.F.A. – Fully lined University blue with magenta cord
M.M. – Fully lined grey with black and gold cord
M.S.N. – Fully lined scarlet with blue and white cord
M.S.W. – Fully lined magenta
M.Sc. – Fully lined light blue
Ph.D. – Gown- Maroon with front panel & sleeves of university blue with gold piping; Hood- Blue silk outside with gold lining; Hat- Decanel bonnet of maroon silk with gold cord and tassel

The Bachelor's hood is edged with the distinctive colour. The Master's hood is the same as the Bachelor's, except that it is lined with the distinctive colour.

The hood for the honorary degree LL.D. is of scarlet broadcloth lined in dark blue velvet; for the D.Sc., it is lined in dark purple and for the D.Litt., it is lined in cream.

More information on degrees granted in Vancouver can be found at www.graduation.ubc.ca.

CONGREGATION OR CONVOCATION?

People often ask why UBC calls its graduation ceremonies "Congregation." There are no records to say why this term was originally adopted but it has been used by UBC since its first graduation ceremonies in 1916 and is believed to originate from its use in English institutions such as Oxford and Cambridge. According to Wikipedia, "a congregation is an assembly of people for a given purpose; with respect to a university, it is a formal meeting of senior members of the University. Examples include the Regent House in the University of Cambridge and the House of Congregation and the Ancient House of Congregation in the University of Oxford. Stemming from this tradition, in some universities a graduation ceremony is known as a congregation, even if the ceremony is not a meeting of the university's governing body in the traditional sense."

For whatever reason, UBC adopted this term for its graduation ceremonies in 1916 and has used it ever since when inviting faculty, students and guests to the Annual and more recently the Spring and Fall graduation ceremonies. UBC is unique amongst Canadian institutions in that it appears to be the only institution that still uses this term.

The term 'Convocation' at UBC is more often used to describe a group of people – defined by the University Act – including the Chancellor, President, members of the Senate, all faculty members and all graduates of the University. The Convocation, through the Chancellor who serves as its chair, confers degrees, including honorary degrees, and awards diplomas and certificates of proficiency.

In Fall 2007, UBC Vancouver Senate reconfirmed its preference to maintain the tradition of using the term 'Congregation' for its graduation ceremonies. In Spring 2008, the UBC Okanagan Senate passed a motion that "Convocation be adopted as the name for meetings of the UBC convocation held at UBC Okanagan for the purposes of conferring degrees, effective June 2008."

Did you know...?

- UBC's first Congregation ceremony took place on May 4, 1916 in the Hotel Vancouver ballroom. There were 41 graduates.
- UBC's first graduate degrees were conferred in 1919.
- The first Congregation ceremony on the Point Grey campus was held in 1927.
- The first graduation ceremony was held at UBC 's Okanagan campus on June 9, 2006.
- The first graduate degrees were conferred at UBC's Okanagan campus on June 6, 2008.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the UBC Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the Convocation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

The Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Convocation ceremonies.

Created by First Nations artist Sheldon Louis of the Okanagan Indian Band, the University Mace is carved from a single piece of alder wood, and combines Okanagan Nation traditions with university customs. The main art work on the Mace features three symbolic spirit icons—a mother bear with her two cubs, the image of the mountains, and water — given to UBC Okanagan in 2005 by the Okanagan Nation elders. The spirit icon gifts were selected by a group of First Nation elders, led by Andrew McGinnis, an Okanagan Traditional Medicine Keeper from the Penticton Indian Band, and Victor Antoine, an elder of the Okanagan Indian Band. Each spirit icon was chosen carefully for its special significance to the region, reflecting local Okanagan Nation tradition, culture and knowledge.

The Mace also features a number of university symbols, including the UBC Okanagan logo, the University coat of arms and the UBC motto Tuum Est – It's Yours. In addition, the back of the Mace displays the word Suknaqinx, which is of the Nsyilxcen language, spoken by the Okanagan's original people. Roughly translated, it means "the ones who stand on the hill and are seen and heard from far away."

The University Mace, which was carved in the shape of a paddle, representing the importance of Okanagan Lake to the region's people, is also inlaid with silver, applied by First Nations silversmith artist Justin Terbasket of the Lower Similkameen Indian Band. The Mace was used for the first time at the 2009 Convocation Ceremonies.

THE CHANCELLOR'S OKANAGAN CHAIR

In 2007, UBC's Okanagan campus commissioned the creation of a new Chancellor's chair for use in Okanagan Convocation ceremonies. Handcrafted by master furniture maker Dennis Weidman of Lake Country, B.C., the chair was fashioned from cherry wood, a species selected for its significance in the Okanagan's long history as a fruit-growing region.

The chair's front panel features UBC's motto, Tuum Est, the UBC logo laser engraved in the headrest panel, and UBC's coat of arms on each side panel.

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true north strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

OKANAGAN SONG

The Okanagan Song is based on a traditional song style called skəlmxqin. Skəlmxqin songs belong to the Okanagan/Syilx people collectively. Songs of this style can be sung by any Okanagan/Syilx person using their own phrasing and their own emotion while maintaining the formal rhythm and structure. This song has been called the "Okanagan Song" or the "Okanagan Nation Anthem" because the phrasing and meaning were constructed to celebrate pride in being Okanagan.

Translation of suknaqinx skəlmxqinx

Note: the word aʔi translates three separate ways in this song.

Aʔi kʷu swi wi numtax
(given that we are good-looking/vibrant/strong)

Aʔi kʷu suknaqinx
(due to being Okanagan)

Aʔi axaʔ iʔ tmxʷulaʔxʷ
(because of this land)

Literation/meaning

We are beautiful
Because we are Okanagan
Because our land is beautiful

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of B.C. to resume work on the Point Grey site. You might be surprised at just who your fellow alumni are, their levels of accomplishment, influence and contribution. No matter where you go, you will find yourself in the company of amazing people – educators, artists, doctors, nurses, business and community leaders – UBC grads who will be your role models, mentors, colleagues and friends.

We'll help you connect through our newsletters, web pages and social networks. You will receive a warm welcome at mentoring, cultural, educational and career-building events, whether you stay here in the Okanagan or go anywhere else in the world. You can get involved in alumni networks as far away as London and Seoul or as close as Kelowna, Vancouver and Calgary.

UBC acknowledges your important place in our community. Worldwide, there are well over a quarter million graduates. That's a powerful network that you can work within to build your life and make a difference in the world. Brought together, we represent a significant and positive force. Remember our motto Tuum Est – UBC is still yours. It will always be yours. This place is as much about you as it is about buildings and classes.

So reach out. Stay in touch. Ask for help when you need it. Lend a hand when you can. Work together and everything is possible.

Just remember that to keep you in the loop, we'll need at least a current email address and, even better, the city where you live. Please send yours to krista.stokell@ubc.ca or visit web.ubc.ca/okanagan/alumnirelations for more information.

start an evolution

UBC generates ideas that start evolutions. Ideas that change the way people think and the way the world works. We see this change as an evolution, one that improves upon what has come before and inspires the generations that follow.

We are committed to offering all students enriched education experiences during their studies and to ensuring that all qualified students have the opportunity to attend and to thrive. The start an evolution campaign, our campus goal is to raise $100 million for student support, innovative learning and social spaces and research and community engagement.

Of equal importance is to ensure that our alumni stay connected and engaged with UBC. Imagine what we can do together. Combine your energy with ours. Together we will discover new ideas to illuminate our way forward, creating positive change in the world.

PATRICK LANE

Doctor of Letters, honoris causa

Poet Patrick Lane is a prolific writer with more than 27 books of poetry to his credit. He has also published a book of short stories and a memoir — about his fight with alcohol and drug addiction. His latest work, The Collected Poems of Patrick Lane, includes some 400 poems that he has written during his more than 50 year writing career.

After graduating from high school in Vernon, BC, Lane tried his hand at several jobs before he settled into a career of poetry. He has travelled extensively, and lived in various parts of Canada, finally settling on Vancouver Island with his wife Lorna Crozier, also an award-winning Canadian poet. His books of poetry have received Canada's major literary awards: the Governor General's Award, the Canadian Authors' Association Award, and the CBC national prize for poetry. Lane's role as a writer does not stop with producing and publishing poems of amazing breadth and quality. He is known as a brilliant teacher and a tireless mentor.

EDWARD BURTYNSKY, O.C.

Doctor of Letters, honoris causa

Edward Burtynsky's world-renowned photography explores the intricate link between industry and nature. His work combines the raw elements of mining, quarrying, manufacturing, shipping, oil production and recycling into eloquent, highly expressive visions that find beauty and humanity in the most unlikely of places.

Burtynsky started taking pictures at age 11, shortly after his father purchased a used camera and some darkroom equipment. Born in 1955 in St. Catharines, ON, a town dependent on the auto assembly plant, he grew up in a heavily industrial, yet picturesque part of the country. He attended Ryerson, where he earned his degree in photography, and studied graphic art at Niagara College. He has taken his photography skills around the world, winning international acclaim for his imagery of manufacturing processes and industrial activities. In 2006, Burtynsky became an Officer of the Order of Canada.
